Larry Ravenswood was born in Chicago in the early 1960s, and practically from the point of birth , he had always had a happy ear for music, especially popular music. He remembers his mother playing Beatles records(and that means RECORDS ..VINYL!) when he was in the playpen. As the 60s became the 70s, Larry carried his enthusiasm for pop music into a whole new ecstasy: American Top 40. Not a week would go by where Larry wasn't glued to his favorite radio program listening to Casey Kasem's every word..it was "heavenly?!..

From 2004-2005 Larry produced and hosted a program called "The Strawberry Pop Show" on KFAI radio Minneapolis/St. Paul. The program attracted many listeners and(in Larry's humble opinion) became a late night cult classic. The format featured many sights and sounds that Larry heard in his youth..and then some!"

Currently, Larry produces mini music biography segments for radio entitled "Classic Artist Spotlight". His show can be heard here on Florida's Surf 97.3 FM every Sunday from 4 pm to 5 pm E.S.T.
